Traditions and Technologies:
Rural and Public Health
Responding to Change

July 30 - August 1, 2007
Radisson Fort McDowell Resort
Scottsdale/Fountain Hills, Arizona

It is with great pleasure to announce the 34th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference "Traditions and Technologies: Rural and Public Health Responding to Change." This year's conference will be held at the beautiful Radisson Fort McDowell Resort in Scottsdale/Fountain Hills, Arizona, July 30 through August 1, 2007.

The conference is a vital health promotion event for our region. We anticipate this year's conference will attract 200 participants representing rural, tribal, border, urban and other communities across the State and region.

This brochure contains a description of the levels of sponsorship that you may consider with the corresponding benefits to your organization. To participate as either a sponsor or exhibitor, please complete this form and return on or before May 31. If you have any questions, please contact Rebecca Ruiz at (520) 626-2243.

Thank you,
