SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

at the

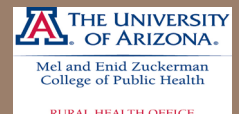

35th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference

Building Stronger and Healthier Rural Communities

August 4-5, 2008

The High Country Conference Center
at Northern Arizona University
Flagstaff, Arizona

It is with great pleasure to announce the 35th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference to be held at The High Country Conference Center at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona, August 4 - 5, 2008.

The conference provides an avenue for disseminating information, collaborating and networking opportunities and identifying needs for further resources and service developments.

The conference is not possible without your support. Please consider becoming a sponsor. This brochure contains a description of the levels of sponsorship that you may consider with the corresponding benefits to your organization.

We anticipate this year's conference will attract 175 participants. Conference attendees represent many branches of the health sector, including but not limited to service providers, public health, hospital and clinic administrators and providers, community and environmental health at the state, local and county level as well as other organizations with an interest in rural, public and tribal health.

We would like to acknowledge the generous contributions of past sponsors and invite them to support us once again. To view the list of the 2007 sponsors go to <http://www.rho.arizona.edu/events/2008rhc/default.aspx>.

If you have not sponsored or attended this event before, we are eager to hear from you and hope to welcome you into the community that delivers the longest running rural health conference in the United States.
